It's a family affair at Pellicci's.

Priamo Pellicci began working in the cafe in 1900 and it was here that his wife Elide brought up their seven children single-handedly whilst running the cafe below to keep the family after her husband's death in 1931, Elide is the E.Pellicci whose initial is still emblazoned in chrome upon the primrose - hued vitroglass fascia and her portrait remains inside the cafe, she and her husband counterbalance each other eternally on either side of the serving hatch in the cafe.

Nevio Snr. Was born upstairs and he ran the cafe until he passed away in 2008. Head of the family business today is his wife Maria who has been cooking here since 1966 and possesses a natural authority and charisma that makes her a worthy successor to Elide.

Son Nevio Jnr., daughter Anna and cousin Tony makes the Pellicci cafe family complete.

Pellicci's boasts an ornate panelled wooden decor, carved by regular customer and carpenter Achille Capocci back in 1946. Thanks to his handiwork, Pellicci's has now been awarded Grade ll listed status by English Heritage.

A classic East London cafe that has been serving the local community for over a century
